

Does God give us rights?

"Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown." - Jesus Christ

It is by the Creator, the God of heaven and earth that this nation and country has come into existence, of which it was established on the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States of America. Whether one believes it was just a Masonic grand experiment or not, it is still this God who is recognized as the Supreme Being and Creator. As true believers in Christ, we see Jesus who is one with the Father, as this Creator, but to the upper levels of Masonry (which is in league with those who say it's necessary to have an outward temple to worship God) they credit the creation of this nation to their grand architect of the universe, whom Albert Pike revealed as Lucifer.

God has given this nation (all nations for that matter, after His Son's incarnation) a time to produce those who would come to Him through the claim of His Son Jesus, but also He has given an equal amount of time for those to be claimed by Lucifer. What belongs to God is God's, and what belongs to Satan is Satan's... and as we can tell by the times we are currently in, things are nearly finished being played out according to prophecy.

If the Creator had not given this nation it's existence with the terms by which it was established, we as Christians may not have had the freedom to even believe in Christ. We should at least acknowledge that God has given us that chance through this nation as a part of His temporal creation.

While the nation was understandably in accordance to what it was established upon, and governed by those who God placed in such positions for a time so it would be conducive for the belief in Christ to flourish, we as Christians are to comply with what the Apostle Paul wrote in Romans Chapter 13. However when the nation is governed by those in such positions that it is not conducive, we as Christians are not to bow down those who will subject us to a corrupt system that goes against Christ, and is clearly anti-Christ. Especially when it comes to taking the mark of the beast. In the book of Daniel, did Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego bow down to the image that was set up? NO, they did not.

Yet, we should understand that even this too is from God as a test of our faith to Christ.

What manner of actions should we take as believers in Christ? This is what we will need to be settled on and resolved within ourselves spiritually, and this is also where we differ from those who only take a stand based on the temporal Constitutional law of the land.

Let me explain things a bit more first of what has and is happening to this nation...

The global elitist cabal are ruling governments behind the scenes and the world leaders are their sold out puppets. For a long time they have been able to keep a low enough profile before the public to keep most unaware and to disbelieve the sinister intent of their agendas should they even hear about it... well now their puppet leaders are implementing their agendas and in the process are revealing themselves for who and what they really are, "the Beast" referred to in the Book of the Revelation of Jesus Christ... and they are anti-Christ, they are against the true Christ. They are raising a false Christ/Messiah as an image to the Beast and intend to make all to bow down to the nation of the Synagogue of Satan as their New World Ruler by enforcing their New World Order laws upon us.

The government leaders and law makers are the bought and paid for taskmasters of the global elitists, and by deceptions they are changing the law of the land in favor of their New World Order agenda, and are even trying to change the Laws of God with the so called Noahide laws... and make it illegal to worship Jesus Christ, who is the true Messiah, declaring it to be the practice of idol worship which calls for capital punishment... on top of that they're trying to enforce bio-chip implants, and then implement a digital currency based on imaginary credit that they can wipe-out just by turning off the bio-chip implants... and make vaccinations no longer voluntary but instead mandatory... and enforce a police state upon us... and on and on, all this to further their New World Order agendas to completion... and yes, these are things they are implementing into laws.

Are we not to discern the signs of the times? Particularly when scripture refers to the end times events of Christ's second coming and the end of the world as in Matthew 24, Mark 13 and Luke 21? Does that sound like it describes a temporal authority that is in harmony with living to Christ, or allowing for the freedom to even believe in Christ? Doesn't the scriptures say they shall deliver us up to the synagogues and prisons (i.e. camps). Many have fallen to their delusion already and have died due to a lack of knowledge. We must be able discern when our "God given right to believe" is threatened, and also discern when the deceiver is trying to delude us into giving up our rights and beliefs thus causing us to reject Jesus Christ as the true Messiah. Some say there are no God given rights... well if the powers that be are ordained of God then the ordination must be established on some form of agreement, and a part of that agreement is a right to believe and worship as we wish, with the understanding there be a mutual respect towards others in their beliefs... as per the agreement with the Creator. So then, the nation's existence is from the Creator, and the Creator can giveth or taketh as the Creator sees fit. For those who are true believers in Christ, who is the Creator, He gives an even greater right...

Rev 22:12-14

"And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city."

The use of the word 'right' here is the Greek word "exousia" meaning: the power of choice; the authority through; the privilege of... and then the right to what? Jesus is the "tree of life", the Root, the Branch and the Cross of Life, our redeemer; He is also the "crown of life", being the head of the body of Christ... this is the spiritual union of Jesus and His Bride together in His Kingdom... the temple and house not made with hands. We will be spiritually one in Christ having and enjoying the greatest reward in Him to be cherished forever and ever. Everything will be made one in Him, all things taking it's specific place according to His Order/Kingdom. Even the wicked will have their place in this oneness, and they are desperately trying hard to keep us from knowing the truth so that we only know their version when they refer to the oneness of it all... for the more we truly live to Christ, and come to know Christ, the more we make ourselves ready.

So then, why should we as citizens of the nation comply to the corrupted authorities who have abandoned the original agreement and have taken on the spirit of anti-Christ? Especially for those called to the citizenship of the Kingdom of Heaven? Now the big question is... How do we resist?

We who are true believers must stand firm in the Faith of Christ to overcome. On the one hand we must not consent by willfully taking the Mark of the Beast and going into the captivity of their New World Order Beast

System, and then on the other hand we must not resort to the use of deadly violence... for if you live by the sword, you will die by the sword.

Rev 13:9&10

"If any man have an ear, let him hear. He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and faith of the saints."

If you are one who leads others into captivity you will answer for it in the presence of our Lord and Saviour... and if you live by the sword what spiritual reward will you have from our Lord and Saviour?

Mat 16:24-27

"Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works."

Many may have some problems accepting this and will be more in the mindset of thinking "I would rather die fighting" or "I'm going to take as many of them out before they get me"... but is this according to Faith in Christ and His promise of eternal life?

I'm not trying to oppose or condemn those who choose to handle this situation with the intention of self-preservation, but what I am trying to point out is that those of this frame of mind have their way of resisting and dealing with this Biblical end times event, and that a true believer has a different way of resisting by placing his/her life in Christ's truth, love, hope and promises as He taught in His Gospel of Peace. We will all be faced with the prospect of death, it's "how we die" that will count before the King of Kings and Lord of Lords... but I also believe that some will make it to His return and will be changed and taken up with Him just before the Great Day of the Wrath of God upon the whole world.

If you claim to be a believer in Christ ask yourself who is the one acting according to Faith in Christ, the one who takes up the sword, or the one who is a martyr for His sake? Granted both take courage, but only the one who lives in Him and dies in Him if necessary wins the promise of everlasting life from Him and entrance into His Kingdom. A man living to self cannot save his own soul, but Jesus Christ can save the soul. Do you truly believe in the words that Jesus said?

Though we shall be tried and tested to prove our Faith in Christ, He will also protect us and will give us the courage to stand by the empowerment of the Holy Spirit.

The Beast System will encounter problems from the God of Heaven as well, seven of them... the "bowls of wrath" are being poured out upon them. Then after the sixth bowl is poured out what does the scripture say... "Behold. I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame."

The Beast System they are raising at this point in time is still adulterated with the old Babylon System. They are found with much fault and abominations before the True and Living God of Heaven, and they shall not escape the bowl judgments.

Remember Moses leading the people out of Egypt? That is a figure for us to understand for when Jesus Christ returns in these end times that are upon us now... and the true people of God are those chosen in Christ, whether Jew or Gentile, all those living to Him are one in Him.

Come Lord Jesus, may the Bride make herself ready.
