

Zionism... Solomon's Seal and 666, Denying Jesus as the Christ, Babylonian Talmud

3 Interesting Things... 1) Solomon's Seal and 666, 2) Denying Jesus as the Christ, and 3) The Babylonian Talmud Point 1) Solomon's Seal relating to 666:

The six pointed star symbol may very well have been used by King David as an emblem for Israel upon the shields for his armies... but David was a man who sought God with his heart for the things of God's own heart, he would never have used the symbol in a corruptive manner or in any form of ritual magic against the God whom he loved. However King Solomon made use of it as his representative seal, and then made misuse of it, that in his end, he used his power and position in a manner chasing after his lusts and vanities which caused Israel's fall by means of his idolatry, following after strange gods in offense to the One True God. So great was his offense that the Spirit of God departed from him... the Holy Ghost (who is the True Seal of God) left him! Though he did not intentionally do this for corruptive purposes in defiance to God, thinking the indulgence in such things were just vanities which counted for nothing and that God would have no concern for, so in a very big mistake of judgment he let his lusts blind him from keeping true and a pure heart to God and fell to idolatry.

This symbol he used for his seal was the emblem of his great power given to him, and with which he even had power over all the daemons, no longer was his to wield because he failed to wield it for God righteously. This seal is more than just a symbol, it represents a name/title of power over the temporal creation as like a god, so long as he kept true to God's WORD and did not misuse this power given to him. (Now you know why those who seek for power and wealth in this world use magic arts, witchcraft and sorceries. For those true in Christ it is more important to seek the Kingdom of God and have the desire for the things of the Spirit than to desire such power over the temporal things of this world.)

Are there things material or even non-material in nature that can affect the mind and conscience so as to bring it under subjection, and captivate it to hold to a particular concept or ideology that those who willfully belief and support / give life to it will carry out the things that it stands for ?

YES!!!

Emblem:

a heraldic device or symbolic object as a distinctive badge of identity/name for a nation, organization, or family so renowned.

synonyms: symbol, representation, token, image, figure, mark, sign; crest, badge, device, insignia, stamp, seal, heraldic device, coat of arms, shield; logo, trademark, brand;

a thing serving as a symbolic representation of a particular quality or concept.

Device:

1. a thing made or adapted for a particular purpose, especially a piece of mechanical or electronic equipment; a device for a computer. Synonyms: implement, gadget, utensil, tool, appliance, apparatus, instrument, machine, mechanism, contrivance, contraption; informal gizmo, widget, doohickey 2. a plan, scheme, or trick with a particular aim. Synonyms: ploy, tactic, move, stratagem, scheme, plot, plan, trick, wile, maneuver, machination, contrivance.

NAME... IMAGE... MARK... SIGN... DEVICE...

Even now the Beasts out of the Sea and Earth use this symbol, or I should say misuse it, to wield for their own evil, self-willed, and/or lustful purposes even as to attain godhood, and for those who will bow down to them in carrying out their evil designs, it will be a mark to the ones serving them in such... so, do not serve them in carrying out their evil designs. Only Jesus can wield absolute power righteously on Earth and in Heaven. If you should wear it, who are you giving honor to with it? Your intent will be what gives it any significance to good-will or evil-will.

Understand though, it is not a necessary requirement that the mark of the beast be an outwardly visible symbol or object, for even the law/commandments under the old covenant is regarded a mark upon the hand and forehead to the one bound under it, (see Exodus 13:9 & 16 and Deuteronomy 6:8 for the sign on the hand and head as a part of Old Covenant observance). All that is required to become one of theirs is to accept and submit to their false light/doctrines as the truth inwardly and then live to serve their evil purposes. Unless of course, they come up with something outwardly visible or of a physical technology that has the intention and potential to enhance the binding of your conscience completely by your own free-will, if that should become an issue, and we are outwardly faced with the choice of accepting it or be killed... then avoid, resist and reject any such thing as well, for their goal is still to claim and own your soul.

It is interesting that this symbol of the six pointed star can be formed by:

- the arrangement of six triangles*
- the arrangement of six lines*
- the arrangement of six points*

The name associated with it:

The name associated with it is more likely a title or entity than a personal name which would be all the kings/leaders of the earth in general, but especially the world leader of the end times... yet it is interesting the Prophet who wrote 1 Kings makes it noteworthy to mention in chapter 10 verse 14 that King Solomon received six-hundred three-score and six talents in gold, suggesting it to be of some significance.

(This star symbol has been and is used by many kingdoms and governments of the world, as well as many religions and magical belief systems)

Calculating the number:

One way is to observe its form with the six triangles. Each triangle is formed by three lines which if you place the lines upright and beside each other it forms the number 111. Divide each triangle so that you have six sets of three lines forming 111 and add up the amount of the six 111's. The total is six-hundred three-score and six.

Another way is what is known as magic squares or magic kameas, which are used in magical arts and practices, and in astrology. The magic square for the number 6 is a six by six unit square with horizontal and vertical lines dividing the square so there are 36 individual squares with the numbers 1 through 36 assigned to each of them. If you add up each number in 1 through 36 you get the total of six-hundred three-score and six, but what makes this of particular uniqueness for its intended purpose is that if you arrange the numbers in such a way to make it a magic square each row horizontally will equal 111, so the total of all six rows will yield six-hundred three-score and six, and you will also notice that at the same time this number arrangement will be in such a way that each column vertically will equal 111, so the total of all six columns will again yield six-hundred three-score and six. In the magical arts and in astrology this magic square is assigned to the celestial body of the sun, which is a star, and is associated with all the sun gods of pagan belief systems, and to all the kings of the earth. It is connected with sun worship and king worship as a god.

And another way yet is gematria, where the letters of the alphabet with various languages (especially ancient languages) are assigned with specific numbers, so that words, names, titles and/or phrases will produce particular number values. In this case, specifically trying to find any which produce six-hundred three-score and six. This is very interesting, but what it produces is of so much variety it's hard to pinpoint a specific name conclusively, but that does not mean that such a thing won't unfold or can't happen. Though the generality of it being a title or entity indicates the what and who close enough... and it does reveal and serve this purpose - it is the emblem of identity for a certain nation in current times, a nation of Zionists who are not really Jews.

("I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan" Rev 2:9; and again, "the Synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie" Rev 3:9)

Point 2) The Jews who are trying to keep the old covenant and the Zionist elitists Jews (who say they are Jews but are not) both deny Jesus is the Messiah/Christ and say He has not come in the flesh yet:

May the hope for Christ's Grace and Mercy come to those Jews who are just trying to keep the old covenant with good intentions but do not understand what Jesus fulfilled and established concerning the old and new covenants... they are still suffering from the blindness and deafness which has happened to them, and so making them fall to unbelief until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, as the Apostle Paul wrote of in Romans Chapter 11. Paul also wrote that because of this happening to them they're concluded in unbelief through which God will be able to give them the opportunity to have mercy upon them, and then all Israel, that is, all the real Jews shall be saved and their sins shall be taken away for there is a remnant according to the Election of Grace. Understanding will be restored to them and they will be grafted back onto the Olive Tree of True Israel. They will cast off the old nature of the Fig Tree stand, and take up their new nature in Christ... the Olive Tree stand. (The question may arise that, "Were there Jews in the past who rejected their Jewish roots and came to Christ under the Candlestick stand?"... that is, being counted among the Seven Church Spirits over the Gentiles... I would think probably so, for Jesus is all about saving as many souls as possible.)

Then concerning the Zionist elitists Jews... these will continue to deny that Jesus is the Messiah who has already come in the flesh, and will continue to make efforts to keep all in confusion and division to prevent them from coming to the understanding of Christ's Unity; and what did the Apostle John reveal of those who say that the Messiah/Christ has not yet come physically?... and of those who do not keep the commandments fulfilling them by love for Jesus, the Son of God, and love for others? "Test the spirits." So then, by their own words they reveal themselves to be of the spirit of anti-Christ.

Point 3) The Babylonian Talmudic traditions mainly held by Zionist elitist Jews:

This is a work of ancient teachings revealing many blasphemies against the Son of God who is One with the True, Incorruptible, and Eternal Living God, and falsely approves and justifies many sinful and criminal acts against all those they consider as the non-Jew or goyim. The Prophet Daniel and the Apostle John both prophesied of the One or Entity who is to come that will speak great blasphemies. Contained in this work are many blasphemies of which are so appalling they are too sickening to re-describe, but with a little research you can find them out for we need to be able to identify the falsehoods of the wicked and be aware of their deceptions. In its early application the oral teachings entrusted to the elders did have the figurative value to the Jews of old testament times, and it did not included all the evil and despicable things it would later come to embrace... they had the Key of Knowledge of Christ's Truth which the Mosaic Law was just a shadow of, but they corrupted the hidden truths entrusted to them and prevented anyone from entering into the Hope of God's True Rest in Christ... instead they chose to usurp mastery/rulership over the people unjustly imposing a lie from their father of lies and loving power and position more than Christ' Truth, and they not only corrupted it they also took it to the point of blaspheme against the True God, especially in the things regarding Jesus, and his mother Mary, and the condoning of various acts of perversion. Scripture points out that the Pharisees and Scribes being corrupt took efforts seeking ways to circumvent the Law of God where it suited them, as Jesus himself revealed when He exposed their deeds before the people as in Matthew chapter 15 and Mark chapter 7.

With these three points how much more does one need to be convinced about who and what the anti-Christ is?

Isn't it interesting Jesus said to call no man in a spiritual/worshipful sense your "Rabbi" which means teacher, nor "Father", nor "Master". You'll find that in Matthew chapter 23 verses 8-10.

Okay now, I know some out there will say, "But what about the Pope?" Well... they can play things that way too as history proves. Now that you know who the synagogue of Satan refers to, ask yourself who the Nicolaitanes refer to?... Where do you think an order/system of a priest hierarchy such as the papacy comes from? The synagogue of Satan and the Nicolaitanes collaborated/colluded/conspired with each other at some point in early church history with the goal to take it over and divide it, even to the extreme of using the sword of the law/commandments to condemn all those who did not believe in their doctrines as the truth, charging them all with heresy as a way to include the True Believers under a false accusation. Jesus and His Apostles never gave such instruction or command to judge/condemn with death/execution. They would have only exposed such deeds of heresy to the light of truth, but never have taught to kill/shed blood over it. The synagogue of Satan and the Nicolaitanes were in on it together in a plot against those who worship God in the Spirit and in the Truth of His Christ/Messiah Jesus.

(As in these current times with the illusion of democracy operating as a two party/two horned power system that outwardly gives the appearance before the people that they are at odds on the issues in an effort to win on behalf of the majority they are feigning to represent, and behind the scenes they're in on the contrived deceptions together against the people, and they never really get anywhere on the issues except to make things more burdensome, yet the elitist agenda of what benefits them through their collaborative efforts is what really gets accomplished... because they own and are both sides of the two party system... and the people for the most part remain clueless and in the dark, and will still continue to believe and support a system which deceives them, of which in the end they will suffer as by a thief in the night, unless by Christ's mercy and chastisement they should be awakened and keep watch.)

As far as the Pope being the anti-Christ goes... I can't really see that scenario being played out, the corrupt and evil deeds of the papacy are too well known now, especially with the papal inquisitions, its just not a viable option anymore for the wicked to make use of that deception all over again. It needs to be something less obvious with a greater potential for having the effect of mass deception, wouldn't you agree?... keep in mind that Rome and Vatican City are not referred to in scripture as the Heavenly Country and the New City coming down from Heaven... In the end times everything comes to a head in the struggle between what is of True Spiritual Reality versus that which is only of error, of this temporal reality, and of this world which is passing away, when concerning God's Will in Christ and His New Covenant, and of the Election that is through His Grace and Faith, and for Israel and the city of Jerusalem Spiritually, which includes Gentile believers in Christ... and as for the temporal aspect there will only be wrath in curses and plagues. Keep in mind that the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation, and what Jesus himself revealed about the end times would require that temporal Israel be back as a nation again... that the abomination that causes desolation be set up, and the head as wounded to death and then is healed with all the world wondering after the beast... which happened in 1948.

Matthew 24:32&33

32 - Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 - So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

So now, let us consider what is Scripturally evident. There are two manner of standings that a Jew may be of, and they must be of one or the other to be by definition a real Jew... They are either of the "Fig Tree" or they are of the "Olive Tree".

Any other stand does not count before God, with exception of the Candlestick stand of the Seven Church Spirits over the Gentiles.

The Fig Tree stand refers to outward/secular Israel which does not stand true before God and is for the most part corrupt, even though by that standing they're supposed to be under the old Sinai covenant, they are "as a nation" Zionist elitists Jews who believe the Babylonian Talmudic traditions are more important to live by and claiming their Rabbinical leadership has the authority over the Mosaic covenant. This is a stand that they made for themselves and does not count before the True God... "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan" Rev 2:9; and again, "the Synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie" Rev 3:9.

In the time of the prophet Jeremiah God revealed a judgment upon Israel, that for some it will be for their good referring to them as good figs, and for others it would be for their hurt referring to them as bad figs. Now the good figs were those Jews who kept God's Word, even unto having Faith in the coming Messiah - Jesus, whom the Law and the Prophets foretold of (Hebrews chapter 11 tells of this Faith some Jews had in earlier times); but the bad figs are those Jews who do not keep God's words/instruction of whom He said He would make a reproach, a proverb, a taunt, and a curse.

When Jesus (who is the Word of God made flesh) made the New Covenant close to 2000 years ago it superseded the old covenant, and is a covenant "of Faith", not being "of works" through the performance of ordinances, and those Jews who live by the Faith in/of Christ are of a stand referred to as the Olive Tree standing, and are counted among the Olive Tree Elect of True/Inward/Spiritual Israel.

As a believer in Christ do not give belief/support/empowerment to the Zionist nation of false Jews who Jesus himself identified as the synagogue of Satan. If you continue in the deception of supporting the false Jews then you have the mark serving their evil purposes and are a willing party to the victimization of real Jews, and non-Jews, who are suffering and dying because of this abomination. As true believers in Christ we should pray for the real Jews who are victims at the hands of the false Jews... pray that they come to the True Christ and take up their True Stand that Jesus is offering them.

I now leave it up to each individual of how they choose to stand before the Son of God, whom all things depend upon for their very existence, and of whom all must be accountable to.

Annotation 1

Well it's obvious now... Trump is one of them, and is owned by them. You could say he is the Zionist's trump card they played to keep a controlled opposition over the masses.

He's only proving to be in alliance with the Zionists... who aren't even real Jews.

Supporting the Zionist Agenda is to give power and strength to the Beast... those doing so are denying and/or betraying Christ and going against His teachings of how to righteously fulfill His WORD by His Spirit... If you claim to believe in Christ, then Jesus would want you to always "know what spirit you are of"... whether of a deceiving spirit, or of the Spirit of Truth so you could repent and be corrected if necessary.

So know what spirit you are of... In all things that you believe, do, and live by ask things like "Is that the way Jesus and His Apostles taught and exemplified as to walking in the Holy Ghost/Spirit of Truth, and in accordance to Christ's New Covenant? "...

Even the Apostles James and John in their early discipleship, while Jesus was with them in the flesh, were confused of what it meant to be in harmony with the Spirit of God, for when they asked Jesus if they should call fire down from heaven to destroy the inhabitants of a Samaritan village for not receiving Him, Jesus told them "Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of." Later John would come to know and be in unity with the Spirit of God through Christ's example and he wrote about it explaining how to recognize the true Spirit, and of how to test the spirits. See Luke 9:54-56 and the epistle of 1st John.

Annotation 2

Zionism/six pointed star/666 and the nationalization of the Zionist State is the prized ruling crown of the New World Order, the apex of the pyramid scheme of power and control, of which all the agents of the Synagogue of Satan operating under the many names, elitist families, secret societies, governments, religions, economic organizations, and etc, yet they are as one entity, of which they manipulate this control through their corruption claiming souls and ownership of everything, and having it (the worship of Zionism/six pointed star/666) as their ultimate endeavor to achieve referring to it as "The Great Work".
