

Spurious claim of Jordan Codices... did Jesus start a new Movement... the Gospel... Old and New Covenants... and more...

One of the claims the recent discovery of the Jordan Codices makes is that Jesus did not start a new movement... But Jesus with His Apostles did start a new movement.

With my use of the word "movement" what I would like to clarify is that I'm trying to disassociate it from referring to a "religion" specifically. By saying the word "movement" alone I'm actually more hinting and suggesting to Christ's teachings as the Gospel given to the Apostles to preach to all the world showing them the way... the Gospel being the tidings of Christ's blessings upon all those who will believe in His Name and the promises of His Spirit, if we live according to His teachings of Truth... Strong's Concordance says "the glad tidings of the coming kingdom of God, and of the salvation to be obtained in it through Christ, and of what relates to this salvation". So the "movement" is the "cause of the Gospel", and if you look up the definition of the word "movement" it can simply mean "a group of people working together to advance their shared cause, way, beliefs, convictions, etc"... therefore "the movement of the Gospel of Truth". In just understanding that Jesus instructed the Apostles to take this "cause of the Gospel" to all the nations/gentiles it is therefore a "movement".

What is it we learn from the movement of the Gospel of Truth? We learn that through Christ we can receive the gift of His Grace, and live anew by His Faith to His New Covenant by the gift of His Holy Spirit... and He even opened His newly established Covenant to the Gentiles, which is a new and better Covenant and Testament, as revising and upgrading things to make the Covenant between the Living God and His people a covenant of faith, and doing away with the works of the law in the performances of ordinances and precepts according to the testament of old... the book of Hebrews and the book of Romans is very important to understanding the truth of the Gospel of Christ and how things came to be... by them we learn that Jesus was not of the Levitical priesthood for he was not of the tribe of Levi, Jesus came from the tribe of Judah of which Moses spoke nothing about concerning priesthood under the Old Covenant. By Divine ordination the Old Covenant and Testament was to be changed to a better Covenant and Testament by the Divine One who would come in the flesh as was foretold of by the law and the prophets... being Him we know as Jesus, the Nazarene, son of Mary and Joseph, the Son of God, and who is the WORD of God, and who is God. The New Covenant Jesus put into effect superseded the Old Covenant and so doing away with the Levitical priesthood, and Jesus is a Priest forever after the order of Melchisedec, so understand that the two priesthoods are not the same at all, nor are related as one from the other. The Old Covenant applied a justification that was by the works of the law which was found faulty, and was weak and unprofitable, and was unable to purify the conscience perfectly through the blood of animal sacrifices. The New Covenant is a covenant of faith, being a better Covenant and Testament which is based on better Promises, and of greater power to purge the conscience from dead works to serve the living God, and now if I/you/we are saved by Christ's grace and live a changed life and turned away from sin, and living anew in His Spirit and in His Faith, He then has justified us which is imputed unto us for righteousness and we have peace with God, and so fulfilling His Commandments in this manner. I would suggest reading the book of Hebrews, chapters 7, 8, 9 & 10 in particular, and Romans, chapters 4, 7, 8, 9 & 10 in particular and you will find the truth concerning these matters.

Any writing or oral tradition ancient or not that teaches the Old Covenant is to be held over the New Covenant that Jesus himself put into effect is of an antichrist spirit, and to believe such renders the Grace of Jesus Christ and his New Covenant of Faith and Holy Spirit ineffective, making it powerless to you, for by your own choice you're believing Salvation is by the "works of the law", by which then you are disbelieving in Christ's Grace and Faith, and that will only result in you being robbed of your Salvation and then leading to the perdition of your soul... so take heed fellow brothers and sisters in Christ and do not believe in such lies that are contrary to Christ. Believe in Christ's Grace and Faith and in His New Covenant, for He holds the power of reconciliation and redemption, and the imputing of righteousness, and the giving of eternal life all through His Holy Spirit; the works of the law which is not of faith confirms only to sin, and it is the imputing of death to the soul... for "the letter of the law killeth".

Something else I find suspicious about the Jordan Codices is just by looking at the amount of letter character content on the pages they've shown there appears to be very little written on them in comparison to most known scriptural writings which have much content. So are they pages with only a single verse maybe? It just looks very suspicious.

Another thing I may add... I do believe the Old Covenant in the beginning was also complemented with an uncorrupted teaching that was to be kept as the oral teachings of the Elders... they knew the Truth, and were only to share it with those worthy prior to the Messiah's coming and fulfilling the prophecies of the work that the Messiah was ordained to accomplish... they had the Key of Knowledge of Christ's Truth which the Mosaic Law was just a shadow of, and Moses even foretold of the One who is to come, and the prophets as well foretelling of the Messiah who is ordained and anointed by God to be the minister of a New Covenant for the people of God, to include not only the Jew but which would include the Gentile as well, and they were told to hearken unto Him when He comes; but they corrupted the hidden truths entrusted to them and prevented anyone from entering into the Hope of God's True Rest in Christ... instead they chose to usurp mastery/rulership over the people unjustly imposing a lie from their father of lies and loving power and position more than Christ's Truth, and they corrupted the hidden teachings of the oral traditions so much to the point that Jesus hated their traditions, for Jesus condemningly exposed the deeds of corruption that the Pharisees and Scribes were doing in seeking ways and taking efforts to circumvent the Law of God with their "traditions" where it suited them. Jesus said these things in Matthew chapter 15 and Mark chapter 7.

So with this understanding that the Elders ruling Israel knew the Truth of God and withheld it so they could retain power and control over the masses, rather than submit to Jesus, the True Christ/Messiah whom they rejected... in this sense, on the one hand it could be said that Jesus did not necessarily teach something new, but rather something that was taken away from the people, and forgotten by the people, for the Pharisees and Scribes did not allow it to be known and covered it with their corrupt version of the traditions of the elders... though on the other hand when Jesus taught His Gospel Truth and Faith to his disciples and to those who would believe in Him, it is something new... and John the baptist, whom Jesus said was the greatest among those born of women, represents the uncorrupted contractual "old way" to God's Truth, which only brings one up to the point of repentance... through Jesus is the contractually valid "new way" of Grace and Truth through His Faith to all, even all nations of the Gentiles (which this is something new, for it was previously forbidden), and the gift/empowerment of the Holy Ghost and Fire for those born of Spirit, of which Jesus said even he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than John the baptist. The parable of the old and new wineskins allude to the "old way" and the "new way".

These matters bring to mind the conversion and revelation of Apostle Paul. Even though he was a Pharisee before his conversion he was not of the Elders or Chief Priests who were unjustly withholding the key of knowledge, he was one who did the grunt work of doing and enforcing what he was told, thinking he was doing service to God... Paul admitted he done so ignorantly in unbelief. He repented and received Christ's Grace and the Holy Ghost, through whom he came to the revelation and mysteries of Christ's Truth on these matters, such as... the prophecies fulfilled by Christ, the Old Covenant as the shadow of the True, the New Covenant superseding the Old Covenant, and his mission to preach the "cause of the Gospel", and many more things in Christ as he testified in his writings being moved of the Spirit. Paul also warned in his letter to the Galatians the danger of continuing in the bondage of the works of the law under the Old Covenant, saying to those who do so that "Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love." Jesus himself warned of the "leaven/doctrines/teachings" of the Pharisees... Why?... because it is subversive and contrary to the teachings of Christ... therefore they are teachings of the antichrist spirit.

This "leaven of the Pharisees" even continues to this day with their corrupt oral traditions, which is now the written works known as the Talmud, also known as the Babylonian Talmud, and it is a work which has become and proves itself to be teachings and doctrines that are of the antichrist spirit. It continues in the path and mindset under the Old Covenant outward promises to Israel (which have come to an end under the New Covenant), for Israel as a nation broke the Old Covenant... Jesus even said they lost the promise of the Kingdom of Heaven when he spoke of them in Matthew 21:42-45. For them to rise again as a nation without God's Providence granting them statehood is a blasphemous undertaking, and only serves to fulfill the prophecies of the end times... as "the eighth beast", who is of the seven, that was and is not, and yet is, and whose head wound was healed.

This present day outward Jewish nationalism (now known as Zionism) which still continues in the goals of the outward promises of the Old Covenant, set as their chief and primary goal, the supremacy/mastery over all nations in working towards a one world order with them ruling at the top... still regarding themselves superior to non-Jews/Gentiles holding extreme racism as acceptable for them to practice over others, believing it as God's will... though under the Old Covenant institution and administration it was, and in so continuing in this path and mindset they are only fulfilling their prophetic role as the eighth beast, and those who support them who give their power and strength to them as well.

Yet there is another group in this mix worthy of distinction... for even the Jews who practice the religion of Judaism, who strive for peaceful coexistence, reject the definition of a Jew by Zionist ideology, and regard their nationalism/statehood as illegitimate in God's eyes. They know the Zionist false Jews are corrupt, and know they will receive the judgment of God. The Jews of Judaism display much courage before the Zionist fake Jews and are actually making a stand for the sake of truth, at least in their understanding of truth, in this they do well which brings much attention for all to see the error of the Zionist cause, if they would just foresee a little farther to the truth of Jesus who is the genuine Messiah... may the God of Heaven work a blessing to them to receive Jesus, our Savior. As far as concerning the spiritual application of Christ's New Covenant there is no longer any difference made between Jew and Gentile, in Christ we are both God's people and of the Kingdom of Heaven.

God Bless... Amen. Come Lord Jesus!
